Introducing FirstChoice Employer Super insurance

FirstChoice Employer Super insurance provides a convenient way to help protect the financial security of you and your loved ones – no matter what lies ahead.

As a member of FirstChoice Employer Super, you have access to valuable insurance cover that can help provide financial protection if you die, become terminally ill, become totally and permanently disabled or are unable to work due to illness or injury.

FirstChoice Employer Super is available to three groups of members:

- employee members – members who are employees of a participating employer (i.e. an employer that has set up a plan for its employees in FirstChoice Employer Super) and such other persons as agreed with the trustee
- retained benefit members – generally members who were employee members but who are no longer employed by the participating employer (refer to 'retained benefit member' on page 28)
- spouse members – members who are the spouse of an employee member.

If you are an employee member, your FirstChoice Employer Super plan generally provides you with a specified level of cover, based on the insurance design set up by your employer (refer to 'When does my cover start' on page 8). You may also be able to apply for extra insurance if you need it, to help ensure that you have the protection you need.

Your insurance cover

When you join FirstChoice Employer Super, you'll receive an insurance pack, which will show any insurance cover you may be eligible for or the cover you have. Your insurance cover amount is calculated monthly and may change due to factors such as your category of membership, your age, your occupation, your account balance and your nominated salary. Your employer must notify us of any changes to your employment details for these changes to take effect.

You can cancel or reduce your cover at any time.

Types of cover

There are three types of cover available under FirstChoice Employer Super:

- Death only cover
- Death and Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) cover
- Salary Continuance Insurance (SCI) cover.

Insurance through super

Here are some of the benefits of having insurance through your FirstChoice Employer Super plan:

- Automatic cover. Most eligible employee members receive automatic cover up to a certain level without having to apply or provide evidence of their health (refer to 'When does my cover start' on page 8).
- Convenience. Your premiums are deducted from your super balance, so you can get the cover you need without it affecting your day to day budget.
- Potential tax advantages. Since premiums paid from your super balance don't come out of your take-home pay, you can potentially pay less for your cover than if you took out a policy outside super.
- Flexibility. If your personal needs change, you can apply to increase or decrease your cover.

¹ Your maximum salary continuance cover limit is the lesser of $25,000 or 75% of your monthly income and up to 15% for your super contributions.

Who is the insurer?

The insurance provider is AIA Australia and insurance through FirstChoice Employer Super is provided under insurance policies issued to the trustee. Any benefit paid under the policies will be paid to the trustee. The trustee will only pay a benefit in accordance with superannuation law and the trust deed. The trustee will not make a payment greater than the amount it receives from the insurer.

The insurer and the trustee may agree to vary the insurance arrangements at any time. You will be notified of any change which affects you.

Classes of cover

There are two classes of cover under FirstChoice Employer Super:

- Employer selected cover – automatic cover available to most eligible employee members.
- Investor selected cover – cover available to employee members, spouse members and retained benefit members, which allows you to apply for the type and amount of cover which is right for you.

Employer selected cover

Employer selected cover is automatic cover available to most eligible employee members. Cover for eligible employee members will not start until you reach age 25 and have an account balance of $6,000 or more, unless you instruct us in writing within 120 days of being sent your insurance pack that you want cover in these circumstances. It is not available to retained benefit members or spouse members.

Your employer selected cover is based on an insurance design selected by your employer, which may change from time to time (employer selected insurance design). The employer selected insurance design consists of:

- the type(s) of cover that apply to you
- how the amount of cover is calculated, and
- if SCI cover applies, the waiting period and benefit period that apply.

Your employer plan may have more than one category. If so, the employer selected insurance design may be different for each category. If you change categories while you are an employee member, you will automatically receive the employer selected cover that applies to your new category (which replaces the employer selected cover which applies to your old category), except in the following circumstances:

- you will not receive a type of cover in your new category if you have previously reduced or cancelled that type of cover, or you have allowed your previous cover to end, and
- subject to the bullet point above, if you have SCI cover as investor selected cover, you will be given a 30-day opportunity to opt-in to SCI cover as employer selected cover in your new category (and, if you do not opt-in, you will retain any SCI cover you have in the employer plan as investor selected cover).

Your employer may be part of a group of companies, each of which are participating employers in FirstChoice Employer Super. If you change employers in the same group of companies, we will treat your employer selected cover in the same way as if you changed categories.

The amount of your employer selected cover is calculated in accordance with the employer selected insurance design, subject to:

- a minimum amount of death and TPD cover required under superannuation law, subject to certain conditions (see 'MySuper cover' below), and
- a maximum of the greater of the automatic acceptance limit (AAL) and the forward underwriting limit (FUL) (see 'Automatic Acceptance Limit' below).

Your personal details

When we're working out your insurance, we rely on the personal information we have for you in our records. If it is incorrect, it can affect the cover you receive, how much you'll pay and even whether the insurer will pay a claim.

Therefore, it's important to check that the information on your investor certificate is correct, and to let us or your employer know straight away if something changes. That way, you can be sure you are protected if you need to claim.

Minimum cover – MySuper cover

If you are less than 56 years of age, and:

- there is no employer selected insurance design that applies to you, or
- the amount of cover calculated for you under the employer selected insurance design is less than that required under superannuation law, you will be provided with a minimum level of death and TPD cover (MySuper cover) (see page 8). Please also refer to 'When does my cover start' on page 8.

MySuper cover does not apply to spouse members and other allowable exceptions may also apply.

Maximum cover – Automatic Acceptance Limit (AAL)

If cover calculated under your employer selected insurance design is higher than the AAL, we will limit your cover to the AAL amount.

To apply for additional cover, in accordance with your employer selected insurance design, you will need to complete an insurance application form, which includes details about your health, occupation and pastimes. The insurer will consider your application and may accept or decline your application. If the insurer accepts your application, you may be given a forward underwriting limit (FUL), which is the maximum amount your cover can increase to, in accordance with the employer selected insurance design, before you must apply for any increase in cover.

An AAL will apply if your cover is calculated in line with the employer selected insurance design for your category, and more than 75% of your employer plan's members take up insurance (excludes non-employee members, employees who have made a choice of fund nomination, and those who are ineligible for insurance under the plan; e.g. casual employees are not eligible for SCI cover).

The AALs for your plan are determined when your employer sets up the plan. AALs may be reviewed. The maximum AALs for age-based premium rates are shown below.

Number of insured employee members	Death only or death and TPD cover	SCI cover (monthly benefit)
		Benefit period
		Two years ¹	Five years/ To age 65 ¹
2–4 ²	$50,000	$0	$0
5–9	$300,000	$4,000	$4,000
10–19	$400,000	$5,000	$4,000
20–29	$500,000	$6,000	$5,000
30–49	$600,000	$7,000	$6,000
50–99	$800,000	$8,000	$7,000
100–199	$1,000,000	$9,000	$9,000
200–349	$1,200,000	$12,000	$10,000
350–499	$1,500,000	$12,000	$10,000
500+	Refer to the insurer

If your employer selects the fixed premium insurance design, the number of units will determine how much cover you receive.

The maximum AAL for fixed premium insurance design is determined by the number of insured members in the plan, as shown below:

Number of insured employee members	Number of units
2–4 ²	1
10–19	4

For example, an employee is a member of a plan with 15 insured employees and therefore able to receive up to four units of cover.

Refer to page 16 for an example of how your premiums are calculated for fixed premium cover and to page 31 for the cover amounts for one unit.

AALs do not apply if you are a retained benefit member or spouse member. AALs may be reviewed by the trustee or the insurer and may change. We will notify you in writing of any changes, where they impact your cover.

Limited cover

In some cases, employee members will be provided with limited cover. Limited cover generally means that you won't be covered for death, terminal illness, or a disability resulting from an illness or injury that relates to a pre-existing medical condition.

When, and how long, limited cover applies is set out below:

When limited cover applies	How long limited cover applies
If you elect to have cover when you are under the age of 25 or have an account balance of less than $6,000.	Until you are in active employment for 30 consecutive days.
If you are automatically provided with employer selected cover.	Limited cover won't apply if your account has received superannuation guarantee contributions in respect of the six consecutive months before your cover starts and you are in active employment when your cover starts. Otherwise, you will have limited cover until you have been in active employment for 30 consecutive days.
If your employer plan had less than five insured employee members when your cover starts.	Limited cover applies for at least two years, and ends when you have been in active employment for 30 consecutive days either immediately before, or any time after, the two year period ending.
If a terminal illness or TPD benefit has been paid or is payable on your life under any insurance policy before your cover starts.	For your whole period of cover.
If your cover was cancelled due to inactivity (ie your account does not receive a contribution or rollover for 16 consecutive months) and subsequently restarts.	For at least two years and ends when you are in active employment for 30 consecutive days following the end of that two year period.

If you have limited cover as an employee member, this will continue if you become a retained benefit member.

You can apply to upgrade from limited cover to full cover so that you get cover for pre-existing medical conditions. To do this, you will need to complete an insurance application form, which includes details about your health, occupation and pastimes. The insurer will consider your application and may accept or decline your application.

¹ If your employer plan provides a different SCI employer selected insurance design for different categories of members, then the AAL for SCI cover will be based on the number of insured members within the plan with the same insurance design, rather than the number of insured members within your plan.

² Limited cover applies.

Investor selected cover

Investor selected cover is available to employee members, spouse members and retained benefit members.

An employee member may have employer selected cover or investor selected cover (or both). Any cover held by a retained benefit member or a spouse member in FirstChoice Employer Super will be classed as investor selected cover.

The circumstances in which investor selected cover may apply to you are set out below.

Employee members

As an employee member with employer selected cover, you can obtain investor selected cover in the following ways:

What you can do	How this affects your cover
Apply for a type of cover that you do not have	If the insurer accepts your application, this cover will be treated as investor selected cover.
Apply for additional death only cover or death and TPD cover	If the insurer accepts your application, this additional cover, to the extent that it exceeds the employer selected insurance design, will be treated as investor selected cover and will apply in addition to your employer selected cover.
Reduce your death only cover or death and TPD cover	If you do this, your reduced cover will be treated as investor selected cover (which replaces your employer selected cover), and you will no longer be eligible for employer selected cover for the type of cover that was replaced.
Change your SCI cover amount, waiting period or benefit period	If the insurer accepts your application, or you make a change which does not require an application, your SCI cover will be treated as investor selected cover (which replaces your employer selected cover), and you will no longer be eligible for SCI cover as employer selected cover.
Fix your type and amount of cover so that it doesn't change in accordance with the employer selected insurance design	If you do this, your cover will be treated as investor selected cover (which replaces your employer selected cover), and you will no longer be eligible for employer selected cover for the type of cover that was fixed.
Apply to transfer cover you have in another super fund or life insurance policy	If the insurer accepts your application, your transferred cover will be treated as investor selected cover and: <ul style="list-style-type: none">for death only cover or death and TPD cover, will apply in addition to your employer selected cover, andfor SCI cover, will replace your employer selected cover.
Apply to reinstate the cover you had prior to your employer changing your category or insurance design	If your cover was reduced or cancelled due to a change in category with your employer or your employer plan's insurance design changed, you can request to reinstate your previous cover within 90 days of the change taking effect.

To apply for cover, you must be less than 75 years of age for death cover, or less than 65 for TPD and SCI cover.

If you cancel your employer selected cover, or your cover otherwise ends, but you remain a member of the fund, you may apply for cover in the future. To do this, you must complete an insurance application form, which includes details about your health, occupation and pastimes. The insurer will consider your application and may accept or decline your application. If the insurer accepts your application, this cover will be treated as investor selected cover.

Spouse members

As a spouse member, you may:

- apply for cover if you are less than 75 years of age for death cover, or less than 65 for TPD and SCI (by completing the insurance application form on page 41), and
- apply to transfer cover you have in another super fund or life insurance policy (by completing the transfer of insurance cover form on page 35).

The insurer will consider your application and may accept or decline your application. If the insurer accepts your application, this cover will be treated as investor selected cover.

Retained benefit members

As a retained benefit member, any cover you had as an employee member will be converted to a fixed amount and be treated as investor selected cover (which replaces your employer selected cover).

If you held employer selected SCI cover immediately before becoming a retained benefit member, this cover may end on the premium due date 90 days after you become a retained benefit member, unless you elect to keep this cover (refer to 'When does my cover end?' on page 14 for more information).

You may:

- apply for cover if you are less than 75 years of age for death cover, or less than 65 for TPD and SCI (by completing the insurance application form on page 41), and
- apply to transfer cover you have in another super fund or life insurance policy (by completing the transfer of insurance cover form on page 35).

The insurer will consider your application and may accept or decline your application. If the insurer accepts your application, this cover will be treated as investor selected cover.

Restarting cover

If you had MySuper cover and this cover was cancelled due to inactivity (refer to page 9 for information on inactive accounts), and your account receives a contribution or rollover after your insurance has been cancelled, by law you'll again be provided with insurance cover automatically.

If this happens, you'll be provided with a fixed amount of investor selected cover based on the MySuper insurance cover for your age, as long as you are between age 25–55 (inclusive) and have an account balance of $6,000 or more. Refer to MySuper Cover on page 8.

This cover may be limited cover, please refer to page 3.

Reinstating cover due to inactivity

Your insurance cover may be cancelled if your account is inactive for 16 continuous months. If this happens, you can request to have your insurance cover reinstated. This request must be received by us within 90 days of the cancellation date. If your insurance cover is reinstated, your premiums will be deducted to cover the period from the date your cover was cancelled (to ensure there is no gap in cover) and your cover will continue with the same policy terms. You'll need to make sure there is enough money in your account to cover this amount.

Reinstating cover due to change in category or employer plan redesign

If your employer selected cover is reduced or cancelled due to a change in category or employer plan insurance design, and you are not in a 'Heavy blue collar (death only)' occupation group, you will have the option to request either:

Full reinstatement – that your previous employer selected cover be reinstated as investor selected cover; or

Partial reinstatement – that your previous employer selected cover be reinstated as investor selected cover (but only to the extent that it is greater than your new employer selected cover) while retaining your new employer selected cover.

This request must be received by us within 90 days of the change taking effect.

Limited cover will apply to the portion of your reinstated cover which is greater than the cover that would have applied under the new employer selected cover, if you are not in active employment on the day you notify us. Limited cover will continue to apply until you are in active employment for 30 consecutive days.

Premiums will be deducted to cover the period from the date your cover is changed (to ensure there is no gap in cover).

Death only cover

If you die, your beneficiaries or your estate may be entitled to a lump sum benefit payment.

Terminal illness

If you are diagnosed as having less than 24 months to live, you may receive a terminal illness benefit.

In order for you to receive a terminal illness benefit, at least two medical practitioners, one of whom specialises in the illness you suffer, must certify that, despite reasonable medical treatment, you will die from the illness within 24 months from the date of certification. Refer to page 29 for further details on terminal illness.

Death and TPD cover

This combined cover offers the same entitlements as death cover, as well as providing a potential payout if you become totally and permanently disabled. The definition of total and permanent disablement varies depending on your circumstances. Your TPD cover cannot exceed your death cover amount.

If you receive a TPD benefit, your death and terminal illness benefit will be reduced by the amount of the TPD benefit.

What does total and permanent disablement (TPD) mean?

TPD means disablement which satisfies one of the following TPD definitions:

TPD – Unlikely to do any suited occupation ever again	All of the following are satisfied: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • you were, on the date of disablement, aged 65 years or less • you have been absent from your usual work due to illness or injury for a continuous period of three months from the date of disablement • in the insurer's opinion, you are so disabled that you are unlikely to ever be able to perform any occupation for which you are reasonably suited by education, training or experience. If you are unemployed at the date of disablement, the reference to 'absent from your usual work' is replaced with 'unable to perform the work that you usually performed before you became unemployed'.
TPD – Suffering a specifically defined medical condition and permanently unlikely to work because of it	All of the following are satisfied: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • you were, on the date of disablement, aged 65 years or less • you are not a spouse member • you are absent from all work as a result of suffering cardiomyopathy, primary pulmonary hypertension, major head trauma with permanent neurological deficit, motor neurone disease, multiple sclerosis with impairment, muscular dystrophy, paraplegia, quadriplegia, hemiplegia, diplegia, dementia and Alzheimer's disease, Parkinson's disease with impairment, blindness, loss of speech, loss of hearing in both ears, chronic lung disease or severe rheumatoid arthritis (each as defined in the policy) • the insurer considers, on the basis of medical and other evidence satisfactory to the insurer, you are unlikely ever to be able to engage in any occupation for which you are reasonably suited by education, training or experience.
TPD – Loss of limbs and/or sight	All of the following are satisfied: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • you were, on the date of disablement, aged 65 years or less, and • you suffer: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the total and irrecoverable loss of the use of two limbs • blindness in both eyes, or • blindness in one eye and the total and irrecoverable loss of the use of one limb, and • in the insurer's opinion, you are so disabled that you are unlikely to ever be able to perform any occupation for which you are reasonably suited by education, training or experience. A limb means the whole hand below the wrist or whole foot below the ankle and blindness means the permanent loss of sight to the extent that visual acuity is 6/60 or less, or to the extent that the visual field is reduced to 20 degrees or less of arc, as certified by an ophthalmologist.

Meaning of words and expressions used in the TPD definition

In the TPD definition:

- "occupation" means an occupation that you can perform, on a full time or part time basis, based on the skills and knowledge you have acquired through previous education, training or experience.

- "date of disablement" is the date on which a medical practitioner examines and certifies in writing that you suffer from an illness or injury that is the principal cause of your disablement or the date you ceased all work, whichever is later. You must be covered for insurance at this date. Your employment status and amount of cover (if any) will be determined at this date.

What's not covered?

We won't pay a benefit in certain circumstances. Here is a list of the exclusions for FirstChoice Employer Super death only or death and TPD cover.

Cover type	Exclusions
Death cover (including terminal illness)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Suicide, attempted suicide or intentional self-inflicted injury within 12 months after your cover starts, restarts or increases (in the case of an increase, only the increased portion will not be paid).¹ • Death which is directly or indirectly caused by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • active service in the armed forces or peacekeeping forces (whether armed or unarmed) of any country or territory or foreign or international organisation – this exclusion will not apply to death while on war service for Australia (where 'war service' has the same meaning the expression has under the Life Insurance Act 1995 (Cth)), • engagement in (including planning or preparing for) any terrorism act in Australia or any foreign country, or • participation in a combat or fighting force of any country or territory or foreign or international organisation. • Any other specific exclusions or restrictions applied by the insurer and advised to you by the trustee before your cover commences.

If you have limited cover, you will not be eligible to claim for pre-existing medical conditions (see page 3).

Any additional exclusions required by the insurer due to individual underwriting will be applied to any investor selected cover and employer selected cover greater than the AAL.

No payment will be made if it would cause the insurer to be in breach of the Health Act 1973 (Cth) and/or the Private Health Insurance Act 2007 (Cth).

How much cover can I have?

FirstChoice Employer Super offers death cover to a maximum of $5 million and TPD cover to a maximum of $3 million.

Your employer selected cover is based on the insurance design selected by your employer. Provided you are eligible for insurance, you will receive cover up to the plan's Automatic Acceptance Limit (AAL) without having to provide any evidence of good health. For more information on AALs, refer to page 2. Please also refer to 'When does my cover start' on page 8.

If your employer selected cover is below the minimum cover required by law, the default level of MySuper cover will apply (see below). You can also apply for additional investor selected cover, or reduce or cancel your cover at any time.

How your death and TPD cover amounts are calculated

The cover amounts you receive are calculated as follows:

Cover	How your cover amount is calculated
Employer selected cover	Depending on your plan's employer selected insurance design and your member category, your death only or death and TPD cover may be calculated as: <ul style="list-style-type: none">a percentage of your salary multiplied by the number of years until you turn 65^{1,2}a fixed amount of cover^{1,3}a level of cover determined by a fixed premiuma multiple of your nominated salary^{1,3}MySuper cover (see below). If the employer selected insurance design takes your cover above the AAL, it will be limited to the AAL amount until you provide evidence of your good health. We will get in touch with you if this happens. Note: If your employer selected insurance design does not reduce with age, TPD insurance cover will reduce at 20% per year from age 61 to zero by age 65. When does my cover start?

Employer selected cover (including MySuper cover)

If you are an eligible employee member, you will automatically receive employer selected cover when you are at least 25 years old and your account balance reaches $6,000 or more. Limited cover may apply, please refer to page 3.

If you want cover before the age of 25 or before your account balance reaches $6,000, you have the option to opt in to get cover within 120 days of the date on the insurance pack we send you. Limited cover may apply, please refer to page 3.

Change of category

Your employer determines the category of membership and insurance design, based on clearly defined criteria.

If your employer changes your category, you will receive the employer selected cover that applies to your new category, which starts on the date you change categories, or such later date we advise you in writing. However, you will not receive a type of cover in your new category if you have previously reduced or cancelled that type of cover, if you have not elected to hold that type of cover and are under the age of 25 or have an account balance of less than $6,000, or you allowed your previous cover to lapse.

If you are not in active employment on the date that you change categories due to illness or injury, the portion of your new employer selected cover that exceeds your old employer selected cover will be limited cover. Full cover will automatically start once you have been in active employment for 30 consecutive days (as long as you do not have limited cover for other reasons).

1 A variation is to use these insurance designs, less account balance.

2 Some plans may cease cover at an age other than 65.

3 Available for existing employer selected insurance design only. Not available for new employer plan's employer selected insurance design.

We will notify you of any changes made by your employer and the new employer selected insurance design that will then apply to you.

Investor selected cover

If you choose to take out investor selected cover, this cover will start as soon as the insurer accepts your application. You will be notified in writing of the insurer's assessment of your application and, if it is accepted, the date that your investor selected cover commences.

When does my cover end?

Your cover will continue until one of the following events takes place:

- the day before your next premium is due, after your 75th birthday (for death cover)
- the day before your next premium is due, after your 65th birthday (for TPD cover)
- we do not receive the full premium owing within 90 days after the first missed monthly premium
- you are no longer a member of FirstChoice Employer Super
- you withdraw your whole superannuation account balance
- you ask us to cancel your cover
- you die
- you receive a terminal illness benefit
- you receive a TPD benefit that reduces your death benefit to nil
- your insurance cover reaches zero under your plan's employer selected insurance design based on your age
- the policy ends
- the date the law requires your cover to be cancelled.

In some circumstances cover that has been cancelled due to 16 continuous months of inactivity can either be reinstated, or may automatically restart (refer to page 4).

What happens if I leave my employer?

If you stop working for your FirstChoice employer, you will become a retained benefit member and your cover continues as a fixed amount of investor selected cover.

Your cover will continue to be subject to any occupation loading factors, exclusions or special conditions that previously applied. Refer to pages 8 to 15 for more information on loadings. If you have not previously been eligible for insurance cover, you will be provided with MySuper cover once you reach age 25 and have an account balance of $6,000 or more.

Find out more: See What happens if I can't pay my premiums? on page 17.

Inactive accounts

If we don't receive a contribution or rollover to your super account for a continuous period of 16 months (inactive account), we are required by law to cancel your insurance cover before your next premium is due, unless you tell us you would like to keep your cover. You can elect to keep your insurance cover by instructing us in writing that you would like to keep your cover in these circumstances.

Who receives the benefit?

Generally, your death benefit will be paid to your beneficiaries or to your estate.

Terminal illness and TPD benefits are paid to you, provided you meet a condition of release under superannuation law.

Until they can be released, benefits are added to your account balance and invested in FirstChoice Employer Super's FirstRate Saver investment option.

When is it paid?

Before any benefit is paid, the insurer and the trustee must first accept the claim.

What happens if I go overseas?

If you are claiming a benefit and are travelling or residing outside Australia, the insurer will require you to return to Australia for assessment, at your expense (unless you are unable to return to Australia for reasons that are acceptable to the insurer).

If you are partially disabled from illness or injury and, on your return to work, you are not earning the same level of income as before your illness or injury, you may also be able to receive a proportion of this monthly benefit payment.

You must be totally disabled for at least 14 days out of the first 19 days of the waiting period to qualify for either total or partial disability benefits.

SCI definitions

Term	Description
Totally disabled	You are totally disabled if you suffer from illness or injury, and as a result you: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • cease to be employed or self-employed for reward (including where you don't receive any reward from your employer because of the illness or injury, but you remain employed) • are unable to perform at least one income-producing duty of your own occupation • are not working in any occupation, whether or not for reward • are under the regular care of a medical practitioner. An income producing duty is an activity of your own occupation immediately before you became totally disabled, that generates at least 20% of your monthly income.
Partially disabled	You are partially disabled if you suffer from illness or injury, and as a result you: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • have been totally disabled for at least 14 days • are still unable to work in your own occupation at full capacity immediately after ceasing to be totally disabled due to the same illness or injury that caused your total disability • have returned to your own occupation in a reduced capacity, or in another occupation • are earning less than your pre-disability income, and • are under the regular care of a medical practitioner and complying with their advice.

What if I become unemployed or go on unpaid leave?

If you suffer a disability while you're on leave without pay, the benefit payment period will start on the later of:

- the end of the waiting period
- the return to work date approved by your employer, or
- a date nominated by the insurer (if there is no employer approved return to work date).

If you become unemployed or go on leave without pay while a partial disability benefit is payable, then the insurer must be satisfied that you are not totally disabled, but because of illness or injury you meet all of the following conditions:

- you are only capable of working in your own or another occupation in a reduced capacity
- the monthly salary or other monthly income you are capable of earning from any occupation for which you are reasonably suited by education, training or experience would be less than your pre-disability income
- you are under the regular care of a medical practitioner and following their advice.

What happens if I leave my employer?

If you stop working for your FirstChoice employer, you will become a retained benefit member and your cover continues as a fixed amount of investor selected cover.

Your cover will continue to be subject to any occupation loading factors, exclusions or special conditions that previously applied. Refer to pages 15 to 16 for more information on loadings.

What's not covered?

We won't pay an SCI benefit if your illness or injury is directly or indirectly caused by:

- any intentional self-inflicted injury within 12 months of cover commencing, recommencing or increasing
- normal and uncomplicated pregnancy or childbirth unless you are totally disabled continuously for 90 days after the end of the pregnancy (the 90 days start on the later of the date the pregnancy ends and the date you become totally disabled)
- active service in the armed forces or peacekeeping forces (whether armed or unarmed) of any country or territory or foreign or international organisation,
- engagement in (including planning or preparing for) any terrorism act in Australia or any foreign country,
- participation in a combat or fighting force of any country or territory or foreign or international organisation.

Please note: You can only receive SCI benefits for one disability at a time.

If you have limited cover, you will not be eligible to claim for pre-existing conditions (see page 3).

No payment will be made if it would cause the insurer to be in breach of the Health Act 1973 (Cth) and/or the Private Health Insurance Act 2007 (Cth).

How much cover can I have?

FirstChoice Employer Super offers SCI cover up to a maximum of 75% of your monthly salary – plus up to a 15% allowance for super contributions – to a maximum benefit of $25,000 a month.

Find out more: See nominated salary on page 28.

Generally, your cover is based on the employer selected insurance design that applies to you under your plan. Your employer selected cover is based on the insurance design selected by your employer. Provided you are eligible for insurance, you will receive cover up to the plan's Automatic Acceptance Limit (AAL) without having to provide any evidence of good health. For more information on AALs, refer to page 2 for further detail. The design will determine the features of your cover, including:

- the monthly benefit amount
- the waiting period – how long you will wait before you qualify for your first payment, see page 13
- the benefit period – how long we'll keep paying the monthly benefit, see page 13.

You can choose a different monthly benefit amount, waiting period or benefit period by applying for investor selected cover. To do this, you may need to provide additional information about your finances and health. You can also reduce or cancel your cover at any time.

How much will I receive?

The monthly benefit which the insurer will pay if you are totally disabled is the lesser of:

- $25,000 per month
- the level of cover the insurer has agreed to and for which premiums are being deducted
- the insured percentage of your pre-disability income.

Employment status	Pre-disability income definition
Permanent employee (including fixed term contractors of 12 months or more)	If you are a permanent employee immediately before you become disabled, your pre-disability income is your average monthly income paid by your employer during the 12 months immediately before your most recent period of disability. If you are on employer-approved leave without pay when you become disabled or you become disabled within 12 months of commencing unpaid employer-approved leave, your pre-disability income is your average monthly income earned from your employer during the 12 months immediately before the unpaid leave commenced but excluding any income earned earlier than 24 months before your most recent period of disability.
Self-employed	If you are in self-employment immediately before you become disabled, your pre-disability income is your average monthly income during the 12 months before you most recently became disabled or, if you have not been in business for at least 12 months, during the period for which you have been in business, subject to a minimum averaging period of one month.
Non-permanent employees (including a person who is not a fixed term contractor)	If you are not a permanent employee or self-employed immediately before you become disabled, your pre-disability income is your average monthly income during the 12 months before you most recently became disabled or, if you have not been in a regular occupation for at least 12 months, during the period for which you have been in a regular occupation, subject to a minimum averaging period of one month. A regular occupation means any form of personal exertion you perform on a regular and recurring basis during the relevant period for the purpose of producing financial gain or reward. This does not include producing financial gain or reward through investments or other forms of passive income generation.

If you are partially disabled, the insurer will pay a proportion of this benefit based on the reduced income you actually earn.

Please note: If you are unemployed, you are unable to receive a monthly benefit payment.

For SCI cover with a benefit period of five years or to age 65, monthly benefit payments will be indexed to the Consumer Price Index every 12 months from when we start paying the benefit (subject to a maximum of 5% annually) and up to the product maximum cover limit of $25,000 per month.

Do you already have SCI cover?

You may only be covered for SCI cover in one account within the fund (this includes accounts you may hold in FirstChoice Employer Super and FirstChoice Wholesale Personal Super).

If you have SCI cover in another account we will contact you to let you know. We will request that you choose which SCI cover you would like to retain. We will give you 60-days to make this decision.

If we do not hear from you, the SCI cover that we will retain and the SCI cover that we will cancel will be advised to you in the letter we sent to you at the time. We will refund you the premiums on any SCI cover that we will cancel for the period of overlapping SCI cover.

What can reduce my benefit?

If you are totally or partially disabled, your monthly benefit payment may be reduced if you receive income from your employer or you receive other payments such as:

- a payment or benefits payable under workers' or statutory compensation schemes, or work injury damages or under government paid parental leave schemes but not including any Centrelink Disability Support Pension payments
- any employer payments including sick leave, annual leave and long service leave
- payments from any insurance that provides income benefits for illness or injury (this includes insurance cover provided under any other account within the fund, including multiple accounts within FirstChoice Employer Super)
- temporary incapacity benefits under a superannuation trust.

We may reduce your monthly benefit by the income or payments you receive from other sources as listed above. We will only do this if the sum of your monthly benefit and income or payments you receive from the other sources exceeds your insured percentage of your pre-disability income.

If the payment is a lump sum or is exchanged for a lump sum, its value will be calculated as 1/60th of the lump sum a month, over a period of 60 months.

Can I claim on both TPD and SCI?

The insurer will only pay a benefit for one illness or injury at a time. However, if you have both TPD and SCI cover, you may be entitled to both benefits if you meet all the conditions.

What's the waiting period?

The waiting period is 30, 60 or 90 days from the date a medical practitioner certifies that you are disabled. No benefits are payable during the waiting period.

The waiting period is determined by your employer selected insurance design, but can be changed if you apply for investor selected cover.

If the waiting period applicable to your cover is less than 90 days, and you have been totally disabled for 90 days as a result of normal and uncomplicated pregnancy or childbirth, benefits paid will be back-dated from the end of your waiting period (e.g. for a 30-day waiting period, after day 30).

If the waiting period starts during your period of cover but ends after your cover ends (or less than one month before), and you are eligible to receive a benefit, the insurer will pay one monthly benefit.

The length of your waiting period affects the cost of your insurance premiums.

Returning to work during the waiting period

If you return to work at full capacity during the waiting period, the waiting period will start again unless the return to work happens once and it is for no more than five consecutive days. The number of days you worked will be added to the waiting period.

Recurrent disability

If you become totally disabled again, from the same or a related illness or injury, within six months of the end of a payment of a disability benefit, an additional waiting period will not apply and the disability will be treated as a continuation of the original disability claim.

If the recurrent disability is a partial disability, this only applies if you were totally disabled immediately before you became partially disabled.

Your benefit will continue until you are no longer disabled or your original benefit period ends. Once your original benefit period ends, you are unable to claim again for the same or a related illness or injury.

What's the benefit period?

The benefit period is the maximum period you'll receive benefit payments for if you have to make a claim – two years, five years¹, or until age 65.¹

For employer selected cover, this is set up as part of your plan's insurance design. If the benefit period for your employer selected cover is five years or until age 65, and your employer advises that your employment status has changed to a casual employee, fixed term contractor (regardless of the length of your contract or hours worked) or a permanent employee who is employed for less than 15 hours per week, the benefit period will be changed to two years. For investor selected cover, you can apply for the benefit period that suits your needs.

The length of your benefit period affects the cost of your insurance premiums.

If your claim is accepted the insurer will pay the monthly benefit until the first of the following occurs:

- you are no longer totally or partially disabled (as applicable)
- the benefit period ends
- your 65th birthday
- your death.

When the benefit period will be limited to two years

If, when you become disabled, you are not in regular remunerative employment, your benefit period will be limited to two years even if you have been paying premiums for a benefit period longer than two years.

Regular remunerative employment means, in the six months prior to the date you became disabled, you have worked on average at least 15 hours per week over a three month period in any employment, business, profession or occupation, for reward or hope of reward. A person who is on employer approved leave (including leave without pay) for reasons other than illness or injury will be considered to be in regular remunerative employment for a maximum period of 24 months from the day on which their employer approved leave commenced.

Leave without pay

If, while you are receiving a monthly benefit payment, you go on leave without pay that was approved by your employer before your disablement, we will continue to pay the benefit as long as you continue to be disabled and are not working because of the illness or injury.

What happens if I go overseas?

Your SCI cover provides you with worldwide cover. However, a maximum of six months' benefits will be paid for any one claim while you are outside Australia. To continue receiving a benefit under SCI cover after this period, you must return to Australia, at your expense (unless you are unable to return to Australia for reasons that are acceptable to the insurer).

¹ Available for existing employer selected insurance design and investor selected cover only. Not available for new employer plan's employer selected insurance design.

When does my cover start?

The same start dates apply as for death and TPD cover. See page 8.

Change of category

Your employer determines the category of membership and insurance design, based on clearly defined criteria.

If your employer changes your category, you will receive the employer selected cover that applies to your new category, which starts on the date you change categories, or such later date we advise you in writing. However, you will not receive SCI cover in your new category if you have not reached age 25 or have an account balance of less than $6,000 and have not elected to hold SCI cover, if you have previously reduced or cancelled SCI cover, or you allowed your previous cover to lapse.

If you are not in active employment on the date that you change categories, the portion of your new employer selected SCI cover that exceeds your old employer selected SCI cover will be limited cover. Full cover will automatically start once you have been in active employment for 30 consecutive days (as long as you do not have limited cover for other reasons).

We will notify you of any changes made by your employer and the new employer selected insurance design that will then apply to you.

If you have SCI cover as investor selected cover (and never had SCI cover as employer selected cover) and you change to a category that provides SCI cover, you will be given a 30-day opportunity to opt into SCI cover as employer selected cover in your new category. If you do not opt in, you will retain your existing SCI cover as investor selected cover.

When does my cover end?

Your cover will continue until one of the following events takes place:

- the day before your next premium is due, after your 65th birthday
- we do not receive the full premium owing within 90 days after the first missed monthly premium
- you are no longer a member of FirstChoice Employer Super
- you withdraw your whole superannuation account balance
- you ask us to cancel your cover
- the policy ends
- you die
- the date the law requires your cover to be cancelled.

In some circumstances cover that has been cancelled due to 16 continuous months of inactivity can be reinstated.

If you first become a retained benefit member on or after 1 February 2025, generally any SCI cover that was employer selected cover immediately before you became a retained benefit member (and was converted to investor selected cover on becoming a retained benefit member) will end on the premium due date 90 days after you become a retained benefit member.

Within 90 days of becoming a retained benefit member, you can elect to keep your SCI cover.

However, any SCI cover that was employer selected cover immediately before you became a retained benefit member (and was converted to investor selected cover on becoming a retained benefit member) will not end if:

- you applied (and were accepted) for employer selected cover above the automatic acceptance limit;
- you also had SCI cover that was investor selected cover immediately before becoming a retained benefit member;
- you have lodged a claim for SCI cover (and are receiving a benefit) under your FirstChoice Employer Super account; or
- you have lodged a claim for any type of cover under your FirstChoice Employer Super account (and the claim is still being assessed).

Inactive accounts

If we don't receive a contribution or rollover to your super account for a continuous period of 16 months (inactive account), we are required by law to cancel your insurance cover before your next premium is due, unless you tell us you would like to keep your cover. You can elect to keep your insurance cover by instructing us in writing that you would like to keep your cover in these circumstances.

How are benefits paid?

Once your claim is approved and we receive your monthly claim form, we will start paying your benefits into your nominated bank account monthly in arrears.

SCI benefits and tax

Salary continuance benefits are treated as income, and tax is deducted before the monthly benefit is paid to you. This includes the portion paid for your superannuation contributions, which is paid by the insurer to your superannuation fund as a personal (non-concessional) contribution. Refer to the ATO website for details on non-concessional contribution caps or speak to your financial adviser.

Do I keep paying premiums if I make a claim?

We'll stop deducting SCI premiums from your super account while you're receiving SCI benefit payments, starting from the end of your waiting period.

What happens after my benefit payments stop?

After your benefit payments come to an end, your SCI cover will continue and we'll start deducting your premiums again, provided you are less than 65 years of age.

Additional claims

If you have reached your maximum benefit period, you won't be able to make another claim for the same illness or injury. Also, if you have not returned to work, you can't receive a monthly benefit payment under this policy for any other condition.

What happens to my benefit if I die?

If you should die while you are being paid a monthly benefit, you will be entitled to a one off amount equal to three times the monthly benefit.

If you are a member of a small plan

The size of your employer plan will affect the cost of your insurance premium. Smaller employer plans are those with fewer than 25 employees in FirstChoice Employer Super.

These plans have a different level of risk than larger employer plans. Therefore, members of small plans are charged a small plan loading of 20%. We will regularly review small plans to determine whether the small plan loading still applies.

If you're a member of a small plan and you leave your employer, the small plan loading will no longer apply to you. The small plan loading does not apply to spouse members.

If your employer has selected the fixed premium insurance design and you are in a small plan (or your plan becomes a small plan), the amount of cover you receive will be approximately 17% lower than the amount shown in the premium tables on page 31.

If you are a retained benefit member

Retained benefit members have a different level of risk than employee members, as the insurer no longer knows your occupation and can't make an accurate assessment of occupation risk. For this reason, retained benefit members are charged a retained benefit loading of 10%.

While providing your occupation details to the insurer won't remove the retained benefit loading, it could mean you pay a lower premium if you're reclassified to an occupation group with a lower occupation loading factor.

The retained benefit loading does not apply to employee members or spouse members.

Estimating my premium

Use the following calculations with the premium rate tables on pages 30 to 34 to estimate your insurance premiums.

The following examples should be used as a guide only – your actual premium may vary depending on other factors such as special tailored rates, any loadings that may apply or stamp duty.

Death and TPD premium calculation

$$\text{Annual premium} = \frac{\text{sum insured}}{$1,000} \times \text{annual premium rate} \times \text{occupation loading factor}$$

Example: Calculating Death and TPD insurance premiums

A female, light blue collar member of a large employer plan is turning 30 next birthday. Her annual premium for $250,000 insurance cover for death and TPD would be:

$$\text{Annual premium} = \frac{$250,000}{$1,000} \times 0.36 \times 1.50 = $135.00$$

Fixed level of premium calculation

Annual premium = Number of units × $1.49 per week × 52 (weeks per year)

Example: Calculating Death and TPD insurance premiums – sum insured based on a fixed level of premium

An employee is a member of a plan with 15 insured employees and therefore able to receive up to four units of cover. They are a light blue collar member and turning 37 next birthday. Their annual premium would be:

$$\text{Annual premium} = 4 \times $1.49 \times 52 = $309.92$$

SCI premium calculation

$$\text{Annual premium} = \frac{75\% \text{ of annual nominated salary}}{$100 \times 12} \times \text{annual premium rate} \times \text{occupation loading factor}$$

Example: Calculating SCI premiums

A male, medium blue collar member of a large employer plan, with an estimated annual nominated salary of $50,000 is turning 40 next birthday. His annual premium for insuring 75% of his salary, with a 90-day waiting period and a two-year benefit period would be:

$$\text{Annual premium} = \frac{75\% \times $50,000}{$100 \times 12} \times 0.89 \times 2.00 = $55.63$$

How are my premiums paid?

We deduct your monthly insurance premiums directly from your FirstChoice Employer Super account at the beginning of each month, in advance. If the monthly insurance premiums aren't regularly offset by regular super contributions or rollovers, it will reduce your account balance.

What is a default order?

Insurance premiums are deducted from your account based on a default order we determine – drawing firstly from Lifestage, then from your most conservative Select options.

Find out more: Call Employer Services on 1300 654 666.

Will my premiums change?

Your premiums will generally increase each year in line with your age. They will also change if you change your occupation or your member category, or if your nominated salary changes.

Once you're covered, the insurer won't increase your premiums because of any changes to your health or lifestyle. However, if you apply to increase your cover, the insurer will take these kinds of changes into account. If your application is accepted, the insurer may apply a premium loading, exclusion or special condition to the increased portion of your cover.

If the insurer increases its standard premium rates for any reason, we'll notify you in advance.

What happens if I can't pay my premiums?

You must always make sure you have enough money in your account to cover your monthly premiums.

If we do not receive the full premium owing within 90 days after the first missed monthly premium, your cover will end. You can prevent that happening by keeping track of your super and contributing extra to your super account.

Please note, minimum account balances may apply and we may transfer your account to the ATO. If your account is closed, you will no longer have insurance cover in FirstChoice Employer Super.

Find out more: You can track your super online using FirstNet. To find out more about tracking your super and making extra contributions, call Employer Services on 1300 654 666.

If you would like additional investor selected cover, you can apply by completing the insurance application form on page 41.

Depending on your age, occupation, health, medical history and the level of cover you apply for, you may also have to provide further medical or financial evidence or meet other requirements.

Once your application is approved, we'll write to you confirming the amount of cover the insurer has agreed to give you. The insurer may accept your application for new cover or a change in your cover subject to premium loadings, exclusions or non-standard terms. If this is the case, we'll notify you in writing.

Interim cover for accidents

When you apply for new cover or apply for an increase in your cover, the insurer may provide interim accident cover while your application is being processed. Interim accident cover is not available for cover you are applying to have transferred into FirstChoice Employer Super. A benefit may be payable if you have an accident within 120 days of the insurer receiving your application for cover.

Life insurance cover (death and TPD cover)

This interim accident cover is provided from the date the insurer receives your application until:

- your application is accepted or declined
- you withdraw your application
- 120 days have passed from the date your application is received by the insurer
- the insurer cancels the cover
- a benefit becomes payable,

whichever happens first.

If you make a claim, the value of the benefit will depend on the level of cover you've applied for, up to a maximum of $1 million.

The benefit is payable only once, for either accidental death or accidental TPD, but not both. In the case of accidental TPD, we will use the same TPD definition as if you'd already been approved for TPD cover.

The exclusions that apply to standard death and TPD cover will also apply to this interim accident cover.

Salary continuance cover

This interim accident cover is provided from the date the insurer receives your application until:

- your application is accepted or declined
- your application is withdrawn
- 120 days have passed from the date your application is received by the insurer
- the insurer cancels the cover
- an interim accident benefit becomes payable
- you die
- you turn 65
- the policy terminates
- you stop being a member of FirstChoice Employer Super,

whichever happens first.

Your monthly benefit payment entitlement will be based on the level of new or increased cover you've applied for, up to a maximum of $15,000 per month. Your monthly benefit payment cannot exceed 75% of your salary, with an allowance of up to 15% for super.

This benefit is payable if you suffer an accidental total disability that continues beyond the length of the waiting period you have nominated on your application.

The benefit will be paid until one of the following occurs:

- you are no longer totally disabled
- the end of the applicable benefit period
- you die
- you turn 65.

If you are eligible for an interim accident benefit under this interim cover, your application for standard cover may still be accepted. However, your change in health may be taken into account. As a result, the insurer may decline your application or otherwise accept it with a premium loading or non-standard terms.

The exclusions and benefit offsets that apply to standard SCI cover will also apply to this interim accident cover.

What is the 'life events' option?

If you undergo one of the life events listed below, you can apply to increase your existing life insurance cover (death and TPD cover). You won't need to send us any extra medical evidence, although we will need to see certified copies of the following documents:

Transferring cover

We've made transferring your cover from your previous fund or life insurance policy simple and straightforward, so you can make sure you're covered, no matter what happens.

At a glance		Find out more
Cover transfers	You may be able to transfer death, TPD and SCI cover you have in another super fund or under a life insurance policy as investor selected cover in your FirstChoice Employer Super plan. If your employer has transferred their existing group policy into FirstChoice Employer Super, you may not need to provide evidence of health for your old cover to continue. However, some conditions apply. Takeover and transfers of cover are subject to acceptance by the insurer.	See below.
Am I eligible to transfer my cover?	Insurance cover held in super (including self-managed super) or a life insurance policy can be transferred. You must be less than 55. Other conditions apply.	See page 23.
Is there a limit to the amount of cover that can be transferred?	Death cover only or death and TPD cover: your existing cover and transferred cover cannot exceed $1.5 million. SCI cover: the cover you transfer cannot exceed a $10,000 monthly benefit. These limits do not apply when transferring cover from other FirstChoice super products or Essential Super.	See page 23.
What will change and what will stay the same?	The type of cover and amount of cover that you had previously, subject to the transfer of cover maximums set out on page 23 and any individual exclusions that applied under the previous fund or life insurance policy will be transferred across to FirstChoice Employer Super. Any formulas used to calculate your insurance (which will convert to a fixed dollar amount), your premium rates, the terms and conditions of your policy and the occupation group will change.	See page 23.
How do I transfer my cover?	Complete the transfer of insurance cover form on page 35 and attach a statement of existing cover.	See page 24.

Cover transfers

There are two main methods of transferring cover:

- through a takeover of cover initiated by your employer
- by transferring insurance cover you have with another super fund (including self-managed super) or cover held under a life insurance policy.

Takeover of cover

FirstChoice Employer Super enables your employer to conveniently transfer their existing group insurance cover under takeover terms for all employees without requiring further evidence of health from their employees.

You will be advised if takeover of cover terms apply to you.

About cover transfers

You can apply to transfer your existing death, death and TPD and/or SCI cover (income protection) from another super fund (including self-managed super) or cover held under a life insurance policy to FirstChoice Employer Super.

To do this, you will need to complete the transfer of insurance cover form on page 35. Transfer of cover is subject to the insurer's acceptance, and the insurer may accept only one or all of death, TPD and/or SCI cover.

Transferring cover gives you the ability to consolidate your super without losing the type of cover and amount of cover that you had in your previous super fund, subject to the transfer of cover maximums set out on page 21.

Transferring cover: how it works

Death and TPD cover

If you have FirstChoice Employer Super cover of $150,000 death only, and your former fund cover is $100,000 death and TPD, your new FirstChoice Employer Super cover will provide $250,000 death and $100,000 TPD cover.

SCI cover

If your FirstChoice Employer Super cover is $4,000 per month (30-day waiting period and to age 65 benefit period) and your former fund cover is $7,500 per month (60-day waiting period and two-year benefit period), your new FirstChoice Employer Super cover will be $7,500 per month (60-day waiting period and two-year benefit period).

If the insurer accepts your application for the transfer of cover, the insurance terms and premium rates applying to FirstChoice Employer Super will apply to your transferred cover. Therefore, you should compare the terms of your existing cover with the terms of insurance available through FirstChoice Employer Super before deciding whether transferring your existing cover is right for you.

Am I eligible to transfer my cover?

To be eligible to apply for the transfer of cover, the following conditions apply up until the transfer date:

- You must be less than 55 years of age. This age restriction does not apply when transferring cover between FirstChoice products.
- Insurance cover is held within super (including self-managed super) or under a life insurance policy.
- Insurance cover held within super (including self-managed super) can only be transferred if:
 - you transfer the entire account balance from your previous super fund to FirstChoice Employer Super
 - the cover is not from a defined benefit arrangement.
- Insurance cover can only be transferred if:
 - the cover to be transferred has been in place for at least 12 months
 - for TPD cover you are working at least 15 hours per week, and
 - for SCI cover you are employed under a contract of permanent employment or a fixed term contractor.
- The cover to be transferred must not have an individual premium loading.
- For SCI cover, the cover to be transferred cannot have a waiting period greater than 90 days.
- You cannot have previously had an application for death, TPD or income protection/SCI cover declined.
- You must not have been diagnosed with an illness that reduces your life expectancy to less than 24 months.
- No amount can have been paid or be payable by, and no claim can have been lodged with, an insurer, super fund or government body because you have suffered a disability.
- In the last 12 months, you must not have been advised to undergo treatment or to take medication prescribed by a medical practitioner that was intended to last for three months or longer (excluding the contraceptive pill, hormone replacements, inhaled asthma medication or cold, flu or hayfever medication).
- You can't transfer cover if, due to injury, illness or impairment:
 - you are unable to work 35 hours per week
 - you have had your duties or workplace modified in the last two years and you have not resumed your pre-modified duties, or
 - you are working in a role or occupation that has been designed or chosen to suit your needs.

If you are in a high-risk occupation, you may not be eligible to transfer TPD and SCI cover.

Is there a limit to the amount of cover that can be transferred?

For death only cover or death and TPD cover – your existing cover in FirstChoice Employer Super plus the amount of cover you transfer to FirstChoice Employer Super cannot exceed $1.5 million.

For SCI cover – the cover you transfer to FirstChoice Employer Super cannot exceed a $10,000 monthly benefit. The transferred cover will replace any existing SCI cover that is employer selected cover.

This means that the waiting period and benefit period attached to your existing SCI cover in FirstChoice Employer Super will no longer apply to your SCI cover after the transfer.

These limits do not apply when transferring cover from other FirstChoice super products or Essential Super.

Please refer to 'How much cover can I have?' on page 8 and 11.

What will change and what will stay the same?

When you transfer your death, death and TPD and/or SCI cover to FirstChoice Employer Super, some things about your old cover will change, while some will stay the same.

What stays the same?

Things that won't change about the cover you are transferring to FirstChoice Employer Super are:

- the type of cover (e.g. death cover)
- your sum insured/monthly benefit (as applicable), subject to the maximum transfer cover amounts (although you can select a lesser amount)
- any individual exclusions (as opposed to standard policy exclusions), but the exclusion wording will be on FirstChoice Employer Super insurance terms
- for SCI cover:
 - the benefit period (if available – see page 24)
 - the waiting period (if available – see page 24).

What changes?

Here's a summary of the changes to your transferred cover:

What changes	How
Formulas used to calculate insurance	Any formula to calculate your cover in your previous super fund or life insurance policy no longer applies – instead, your cover will convert to a fixed dollar amount of investor selected cover.
Premium rates	Your premiums will be calculated based on FirstChoice Employer Super's rates – see pages 30 to 34.
Terms and conditions	The FirstChoice Employer Super insurance terms and conditions will now apply to your transferred cover. This includes FirstChoice Employer Super exclusions and disability definitions, so carefully check both policies to make sure you understand the differences and how they may affect you.
The occupation classification and loading factor	Your occupation classification and loading factor will change to the applicable FirstChoice Employer Super occupation classification and loading factor – see page 15.
SCI cover	Any SCI cover you have in FirstChoice Employer Super will be replaced with the transferred cover (subject to the above changes) and will be investor selected cover.

SCI cover

The new waiting period for your SCI cover will be:

Waiting period in former fund or previous life insurance policy	New waiting period
30 days or less	30 days
31–60 days	60 days
61–90 days	90 days

Find out more: See What's the waiting period? on page 13.

SCI benefit period

The new benefit period applying to your SCI cover is:

Benefit period in former fund or previous life insurance policy	New benefit period
2 years	2 years
5 years and up to age 65	5 years
To age 65 or more	To age 65

Find out more: See What's the benefit period? on page 13.

Other things you should know

You can transfer like-for-like cover, depending on the product restrictions and eligibility rules. For example, if you have death and TPD cover with your former fund, you must transfer both types of cover into FirstChoice Employer Super. However, if we decline the TPD cover, the transfer of cover for death only cover may still be accepted.

You can also transfer partial cover, as long as the cover is like-for-like.

How do I transfer my cover?

To transfer cover you already have with another super fund (including self-managed super) or under a life insurance policy, you will need to complete the transfer of insurance cover form on page 35.

Cancelling your previous cover

It is important that you receive an acceptance confirmation from FirstChoice Employer Super before you cancel your previous cover or transfer your superannuation account balance. This will allow for the transferred cover to commence in FirstChoice Employer Super. Otherwise, you may be left without any insurance cover. Once you have received an acceptance confirmation, if you do not cancel your transferred cover, you will not be entitled to claim on the portion of cover transferred to FirstChoice Employer Super.

Providing proof of cover

You will need to provide proof of existing cover by providing ONE of the following:

- a valid statement from your former super fund or life insurance company (issued within the last 12 months)
- a Certificate of Currency on company letterhead (issued within the last 60 days)
- an adviser-generated portfolio report (issued within the last 60 days)
- an email directly from your former super fund or life insurance company (issued within the last 60 days).

The proof of cover must state your name and needs to clearly outline the existing insurance cover held and the acceptance terms of the cover including any loadings, exclusions or special conditions.

When does my transferred cover start?

Your transferred cover starts on the transfer date, which is the later of:

- the date the insurer accepts the transfer, and
- the date that your cover ends in the previous super fund or under the life insurance policy.

If you are not in active employment on the last working day immediately before the transfer date, your transferred cover will exclude cover for any disability arising from an illness or injury which prevented you from being in active employment. This exclusion will apply until you are in active employment again.

Making a claim

If you ever need to make a claim, we're here to help. Here's what you need to do and what we'll do to support you at a difficult time.

We understand that a life or salary continuance claim always comes at a difficult time, so we'll do everything we can to make the process easy and stress free. You can help us by getting in touch with us as soon as possible and providing all the information we need.

When should I make a claim?

You must let us know as soon as you need to make a claim. And remember that a waiting period may apply. If you delay in notifying us, the insurer may reduce any benefits if your delay has affected its ability to assess your claim.

How will I be paid?

If your claim for a death, terminal illness or TPD benefit is accepted, the trustee will pay the amount to the FirstRate Saver option within FirstChoice Employer Super. This will also cancel any auto-rebalancing you may have requested on your account. You can only be paid a TPD or terminal illness benefit if you meet a condition of release as set out under superannuation law.

The insurer will only pay you a death, terminal illness or TPD benefit once. This also applies to interim accident cover. If you are paid a TPD benefit, your death cover will be reduced by this amount.

For SCI claims that are accepted by the insurer, your benefit will be paid directly to your nominated bank account monthly, in arrears, once the waiting period has elapsed. SCI benefits will be treated as income, and tax and superannuation contributions will be deducted before the monthly amount is paid to you.

Do I keep paying premiums if I make a claim?

If your claim for death, terminal illness or TPD is accepted, we'll refund premiums that are charged for that cover type from the date of the event. If your SCI claim is accepted, we'll refund premiums charged from the end of your waiting period, or from the date you first become eligible to receive benefits.

What information do I need to provide?

You must provide the insurer with any documents or information it needs to properly assess your claim. This may mean that you will need to undertake a medical or other examination. For SCI claims, you will need to provide progress certificates and other medical documents on request to continue to be eligible to receive the benefit.

Are there any other conditions for terminal illness, TPD and SCI claims?

If you make a claim, you will need to provide evidence of your medical condition. You will be responsible for the costs of the initial medical test and reports.

If the insurer needs further medical tests or reports to support your claim, the insurer will usually cover these costs. However, you will need to cover any extra costs such as:

- travel costs to and from appointments, including the cost to return to Australia if you are overseas
- cancellation fees for any appointments you miss.

You must also comply with any reasonable medical treatment or rehabilitation program recommended by a medical practitioner.

What happens if I go overseas and I am receiving an SCI benefit?

Your SCI cover provides you with worldwide cover. However, a maximum of six months' benefits will be paid for any one claim while you are outside Australia. To continue receiving a benefit under SCI cover after this period, you must return to Australia, at your expense (unless you are unable to return to Australia for reasons that are acceptable to the insurer).

If you meet the conditions for both a TPD and an SCI benefit, you may be entitled to receive both.

Other important information

Your cooling-off rights, reapplying if your policy lapses, and other important information.

Cooling-off period

You have a 28-day cooling-off period to review your cover, where you can choose to cancel your cover in writing, and any premiums paid will be refunded.

The 28 calendar days start on the earlier of:

- the day you receive our written confirmation of cover, or
- the end of the fifth day after the day on which our confirmation is issued.

If your application was for additional cover, the cooling-off period applies to the increased portion of insurance cover only. There is no cooling-off period for cover transferred from another super fund or life insurance policy.

Preserved or restricted non-preserved amounts cannot be refunded directly to you if you take advantage of the 28-day cooling-off period (unless you satisfy a condition of release).

What happens if my cover lapses?

If your cover lapses because you haven't paid your premiums, you'll need to complete a new insurance application form and provide health evidence to the insurer.

The insurer will either accept, with or without special terms, or decline your application and if accepted, your cover will start the date it is approved by the insurer in writing.

Special offers

Occasionally, we may agree with the insurer to make special offers available for existing or prospective members.

These could include reduced premium rates or changes to the underwriting rules, and may apply only to a limited range of members.

Worldwide cover

About this application

The life insurance policy being applied for with this application is a consumer insurance contract within the meaning of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). When you apply for life insurance, we conduct a process called underwriting. It's how we decide whether we can cover you, and if so, on what terms and at what cost.

We will ask questions we need to know the answers to. These will be about your personal circumstances, such as your health and medical history, occupation, income, lifestyle, pastimes, and current and past insurance. The information you give us in response to our questions is vital to our decision.

The duty to take reasonable care

When applying for insurance, there is a legal duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the insurer before the contract of insurance is entered into.

A misrepresentation is a false answer, an answer that is only partially true, or an answer which does not fairly reflect the truth.

This duty applies to a new contract of insurance and also applies when extending or making changes to existing insurance, and reinstating insurance.

If you do not meet your duty

If you do not meet your legal duty, this can have serious impacts on your insurance. There are different remedies that may be available to us. These are set out in the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). These are intended to put us in the position we would have been in if the duty had been met.

Your cover could be avoided (treated as if it never existed), or its terms may be varied. This may also result in a claim being declined or a benefit being reduced.

Please note that there may be circumstances where we later investigate whether the information given to us was true. For example, we may do this when a claim is made.

Before we exercise any of these remedies, we will explain our reasons and what you can do if you disagree.

Guidance for answering our questions

You are responsible for the information provided to us. When answering our questions, please:

- Think carefully about each question before you answer. If you are unsure of the meaning of any question, please ask us before you respond.
- Answer every question.
- Answer truthfully, accurately and completely. If you are unsure about whether you should include information, please include it.
- Review your application carefully before it is submitted. If someone else helped prepare your application (for example, your adviser), please check every answer (and if necessary, make any corrections) before the application is submitted.

Changes before your cover starts

Before your cover starts, we may ask about any changes that mean you would now answer our questions differently. As any changes might require further assessment or investigation, it could save time if you let us know about any changes when they happen.

If you need help

It's important that you understand this information and the questions we ask. Ask us or a person you trust, such as your adviser for help if you have difficulty understanding the process of buying insurance or answering our questions.

If you're having difficulty due to a disability, understanding English or for any other reason, we're here to help. If you want, you can have a support person you trust with you.

Notifying the insurer

If, after the cover starts, you think you may not have met your duty, please contact us immediately and we'll let you know whether it has any impact on the cover.

PERSONAL STATEMENT – MEMBER'S DECLARATION

About this application

The life insurance policy being applied for with this application is a consumer insurance contract within the meaning of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). When you apply for life insurance, we conduct a process called underwriting. It's how we decide whether we can cover you, and if so, on what terms and at what cost.

We will ask questions we need to know the answers to. These will be about your personal circumstances, such as your health and medical history, occupation, income, lifestyle, pastimes, and current and past insurance. The information you give us in response to our questions is vital to our decision.

The duty to take reasonable care

When applying for insurance, there is a legal duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the insurer before the contract of insurance is entered into.

A misrepresentation is a false answer, an answer that is only partially true, or an answer which does not fairly reflect the truth.

This duty applies to a new contract of insurance and also applies when extending or making changes to existing insurance, and reinstating insurance.

If you do not meet your duty

If you do not meet your legal duty, this can have serious impacts on your insurance. There are different remedies that may be available to us. These are set out in the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). These are intended to put us in the position we would have been in if the duty had been met.

Your cover could be avoided (treated as if it never existed), or its terms may be varied. This may also result in a claim being declined or a benefit being reduced.

Please note that there may be circumstances where we later investigate whether the information given to us was true. For example, we may do this when a claim is made.

Before we exercise any of these remedies, we will explain our reasons and what you can do if you disagree.

Guidance for answering our questions

You are responsible for the information provided to us. When answering our questions, please:

- think carefully about each question before you answer. If you are unsure of the meaning of any question, please ask us before you respond
- answer every question
- answer truthfully, accurately and completely. If you are unsure about whether you should include information, please include it
- review your application carefully before it is submitted. If someone else helped prepare your application (for example, your adviser), please check every answer (and if necessary, make any corrections) before the application is submitted.

Changes before your cover starts

Before your cover starts, we may ask about any changes that mean you would now answer our questions differently. As any changes might require further assessment or investigation, it could save time if you let us know about any changes when they happen.

If you need help

It's important that you understand this information and the questions we ask. Ask us or a person you trust, such as your adviser for help if you have difficulty understanding the process of buying insurance or answering our questions.

If you're having difficulty due to a disability, understanding English or for any other reason, we're here to help. If you want, you can have a support person you trust with you.

Notifying the insurer

If, after the cover starts, you think you may not have met your duty, please contact us immediately and we'll let you know whether it has any impact on the cover.

Notes on releasing information about your health

Your health information includes details about all your interactions with health providers, and may include details such as your symptoms, treatment, consultations, personal medical history and lifestyle. Health providers cannot release this information about you without your consent.

We, (AIA Australia), collect and use your health information to assess your application for cover, to assess and manage your claim, or to confirm the information you gave us when you applied for cover or made a claim. This is why we need your consent.

Each time you apply for cover or make a claim, we will ask you for a fresh consent. We will respect your privacy by only asking for the information we reasonably need, and we will tell you each time we use your consent.

Please read each Authority carefully and the explanatory notes below.

AUTHORITY 1

Authority 1 explanatory notes – through this Authority, with the exception of a copy of the consultation notes held by your General Practitioner/Practice, you are consenting to any health provider releasing any health information about you in the form we ask for. This may involve, for example:
