If you are a temporary resident and have not requested a Departing Australia Superannuation Payment (DASP) benefit within six months of the later of your temporary visa expiring and the date you are leaving the country, we may be required to pay your account balance to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO). In these circumstances you will no longer be a member of the Fund and you will lose any insurance cover. You will also no longer be invested in your chosen investment option(s).

We rely upon ASIC Corporations Unclaimed Superannuation – Former Temporary Residents Instrument 2019/873, which releases us from the requirement to notify you or give you an exit statement upon transferring your benefit to the ATO. From 1 July 2013, interest accrues on your account balance from the time it is paid to the ATO. Once your account has been transferred to the ATO, you may claim your benefit by completing the DASP online application at www.ato.gov.au

Working holiday makers

Departing Australia Superannuation Payments (DASPs) made to working holiday makers will be taxed at a different rate to those paid to other temporary residents. You are classified as a working holiday maker where you hold or have held a 417 Working Holiday visa or a 462 Work and Holiday visa. Please refer to the ATO site for further information: www.ato.gov.au/Individuals/coming-to-australia-or-going-overseas/coming-to-australia/working-holiday-makers/

Superannuation contribution surcharge

Payments of the superannuation contribution surcharge if applicable are paid by deductions from your account, or, if the Trustee receives an assessment after you have left, it will generally be forwarded on to the fund or institution to which you have transferred your benefit.

Trustee Voluntary Payments

In certain circumstances, we may transfer to the ATO any amount we hold on behalf of a member, former member or non-member spouse if we reasonably believe doing so would be in the best interests of either of these three parties.

These circumstances may include where:

- we receive no response within 30 days of trying to make contact to receive payment instructions
- we are unable to:
  - transfer funds to an active CFS superannuation account
  - transfer funds into a nominated bank account used in the previous 12 months (if the party has met a condition of release such as retirement); or
  - make contact for payment instructions for rollover benefits; or
- the account does not meet another Unclaimed Super Money category.

Unclaimed Money and Lost Members

We may be required to pay your account balance to the ATO if:

- you are 65 years or older, we have not received a contribution in two years, and we have been unable to contact you for five years
- your account is subject to a family law payment split, but we are unable to identify the ex-spouse entitled to the super benefit
- you are deceased, we have not received a contribution or rollover for you in the past two years, and we can't (after reasonable attempts and a reasonable period of time) identify a person entitled to your super benefit
- you are a lost member and either:
  - your account balance is less than $6,000, or
  - we have not received an amount in respect of you in the last 12 months, and we do not have enough information to identify you and would not be able to pay an amount to you.

You will be a lost member where:

- at least one written communication has been sent back to us undelivered and we believe you can no longer be contacted, or we've never had an address for you, and we have not received a contribution or rollover for you within the last 12 months and you have not contacted the fund or accessed information about your account electronically within the last 12 months, or
- you joined the fund as a result of an agreement between your employer and the trustee of the fund, and you have been a member of the fund for longer than two years, and the fund has not received a contribution or rollover in respect of you in five years.

Other important information

If your account balance is transferred to the ATO, you will no longer be a member of FirstChoice and you will lose any insurance cover. You will also no longer be invested in your chosen investment option(s). From 1 July 2013, interest will accrue on your account balance from the time it is paid to the ATO. You may claim your benefit by completing the online application, or downloading a paper application form, from www.ato.gov.au.

Inactive accounts with a low account balance

If your account has no insurance cover, your account balance is below $6,000, you have not satisfied a prescribed condition of release and we have not received a contribution or rollover to your account for a continuous period of 16 months (inactive low balance account), we are required by law to report and transfer your account to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO).

Your account will no longer be considered inactive and will not be transferred to the ATO, if for example, in the last 16 months you make a contribution or rollover, change your investment options, make or alter a binding beneficiary nomination or instruct us not to transfer your inactive low balance account to the ATO, before the relevant ATO transfer date.

We will report on and transfer inactive low balance accounts to the ATO twice a year, in accordance with legislated timeframes. The ATO will transfer your balance to your active super account, where possible.

Regulatory changes

The information contained in the following sections is general information only and does not take into account your objectives, personal financial situation, or needs. You should assess whether the information is appropriate for you and talk to your financial adviser for further information. The information in this section is current as of 9 December 2021.

Recent legislative changes to superannuation

The following are some key changes to superannuation legislation which have taken effect recently.

Increase in maximum age to use 'bring-forward rule'

The bring-forward rule may allow you to make up to $330,000 in non-concessional contributions at one time, which is above the standard cap of $110,000 per financial year (based on 2021-22 cap amount).

Prior to 1 July 2020, you had to be under 65 at any time during a financial year to use the bring-forward rule. However, from 1 July 2020, the bring-forward rule has been extended to people aged under 67 any time during a financial year.

It is important to note that your non-concessional contributions cap (including under the bring-forward rule) may also be reduced based on your total superannuation balance. You must also meet general contribution eligibility requirements (eg, the work test or work test exemption if aged 67 to 74) at the time of making a voluntary contribution.

Re-contribution of COVID-19 early release superannuation amounts

If you made eligible withdrawals of up to $20,000 from super between 20 April 2020 and 31 December 2020 under the COVID-19 early release rules, you can re-contribute these amounts from 1 July 2021 to 30 June 2030 as a 're-contribution of COVID-19 early release superannuation amounts'. These amounts will not count towards your non-concessional contributions cap and you cannot claim a tax-deduction for the re-contribution. You must provide us with a 'Notice of re-contributions of COVID-19 Early Release amounts' form at the time you make this type of contribution (available from the ATO).

Introduction of 'stapled fund' rules

Most people are eligible to choose which superannuation fund receives their employer Superannuation Guarantee (SG) contributions. Where an eligible employee does not exercise choice of fund, the employer must instead generally pay their SG contributions to the employer's default super fund.

However, where a new employee starts with an employer on or after 1 November 2021, and does not choose a super fund, the employer must instead generally contribute to their existing (stapled) fund where one exists<sup>1</sup>, or to the employer's default fund if the employee doesn't have a stapled fund. In some situations where a new employee is not eligible to choose a super fund, an employer may also be required to contribute to the employee's stapled fund.

This new legislation aims to help prevent the creation of unintended multiple superannuation accounts by having a person's existing superannuation fund follow them as they change employment. The stapled fund rules don't apply to employees who started with an employer prior to 1 November 2021.

For more information about the stapled fund rules, refer to www.ato.gov.au.

<sup>1</sup> Employers determine whether an employee has a stapled fund by checking with the ATO.

YourSuper comparison tool

The ATO has introduced an interactive online comparison tool that:

- Displays a table of simple super products (MySuper products) ranked by fees and net returns (updated quarterly).
- Allows you to select and compare in more detail up to four MySuper products at a time.
- Links you to a super fund's website when you select a MySuper product from the table.
- Can show your current super accounts alongside other MySuper products – if you access the personalised version through myGov.
- Provides links to help you consolidate your super accounts.

To access the YourSuper comparison tool, log in to ATO online services through myGov (personalised version) or visit www.ato.gov.au/YourSuper-Comparison-Tool/ (non-personalised version).

Annual performance test

From 1 July 2021, the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) commenced annual performance tests on MySuper products. Where a product fails the performance test, it is required to notify members and provide them with information about the YourSuper comparison tool (see above). Where a product fails the performance test for a second consecutive time, it is prohibited from accepting new members until APRA is satisfied its performance has improved.

From 1 July 2022, the above performance test rules will be extended to certain other (trustee-directed) super products.

Minimum payments for certain pensions temporarily reduced

Account based pensions

Your minimum account based pension payment amount is worked out each year. It is calculated by multiplying your account balance as at 1 July (or the commencement of your pension if commenced during the financial year) by a percentage factor depending on your age.<sup>2</sup>

The minimum drawdown requirements for account based pensions have been temporarily reduced by 50% for the 2019–20, 2020–21 and 2021–22 financial years, as shown in the following table.

Age	Standard minimum percentage factor	Reduced minimum percentage factor (2019–20, 2020–21 and 2021–22 financial years)
Under 65	4%	2%
65 to 74	5%	2.5%
75 to 79	6%	3%
80 to 84	7%	3.5%
85 to 89	9%	4.5%
90 to 94	11%	5.5%
95 or over	14%	7%

<sup>2</sup> If you commence your pension on or after 1 June, no minimum pension payment amount is required to be made for that financial year. Otherwise, we must pro rata your minimum pension payment amount in the first financial year of your pension for the number of days remaining in the financial year.

Regulatory changes

Term allocated pensions

The minimum payment for term allocated pensions has also been temporarily reduced by 50% for the 2019–20, 2020–21 and 2021–22 financial years. Under normal rules, you can choose a pension payment of between 90% and 110% of a standard calculated amount. Under the reduced minimum rules, you can instead choose a pension payment of between 45% and 110% of the calculated amount.

Proposed changes to superannuation

The following are some key future changes to superannuation legislation which have been announced by the Government.

End of the work test for certain contributions for people aged up to 74

Under current rules, you must meet a work test (or alternatively qualify for a work test exemption) if making most types of voluntary superannuation contributions while aged 67 to 74<sup>3</sup>.

From an expected date of 1 July 2022, the Government has proposed that people in this age group will be able to make or receive non-concessional contributions (including under the bring-forward rule) or salary sacrifice super contributions without meeting the work test (or work test exemption), subject to existing contribution caps.

However, people in this age group wanting to make personal tax-deductible contributions will still have to satisfy a work test or work test exemption.

The Government introduced a Bill to implement this change on 27 October 2021, however at the time of writing (9 December 2021) the Bill had not passed Parliament or become law.

Further increase in maximum age to use 'bring-forward rule'

The bring-forward rule may allow you to make up to $330,000 in non-concessional contributions at one time, which is above the standard cap of $110,000 per financial year (based on 2021–22 cap amount).

On 1 July 2020, the bring-forward rule was extended to people aged 65 or 66 at the start of a financial year (see the previous section for further information). From an expected date of 1 July 2022, the Government has announced that access to the bring-forward rule will be further extended to people aged under 75<sup>4</sup> any time during a financial year.

The Government introduced a Bill to implement this change on 27 October 2021, however at the time of writing (9 December 2021) the Bill had not passed Parliament or become law. At the time of writing, it is unclear whether the proposed change would involve a tapering of the contribution amount permitted under the bring-forward rule as a person gets closer to age 75.

It is important to note that your non-concessional contributions cap (including under the bring-forward rule) may also be reduced based on your total superannuation balance.

3 Age 74 includes the period up to 28 days after the end of the month in which you turn 75.

4 Under general contribution eligibility requirements, any non-concessional contributions would need to be made no later than 28 days after the end of the month in which you turn 75.

Increasing the maximum releasable amount under the First Home Super Saver Scheme

Under existing First Home Super Saver Scheme (FHSSS) rules, a person can only apply to have up to $30,000 of their eligible voluntary contributions plus a deemed earnings amount released from super to purchase their first home.

From an expected date of 1 July 2022, the Government has proposed increasing the maximum releasable contributions amount for the FHSSS from $30,000 to $50,000. The Government introduced a Bill to implement this change on 27 October 2021, however at the time of writing (9 December 2021) the Bill had not passed Parliament or become law.

Reduction of the eligibility age for downsizer contributions

The downsizer contribution allows people to make a one-off after-tax contribution to super of up to $300,000 from the proceeds of selling their home they have held for at least 10 years. Under the rules both members of a couple can make downsizer contributions in respect of the same home, and the contributions do not count towards a member's non-concessional contributions caps.

Currently you must be aged 65 or over to make a downsizer contribution. However, from an expected date of 1 July 2022, the Government has proposed expanding access to allow eligible people aged 60 or over to make a downsizer contribution. The Government introduced a Bill to implement this change on 27 October 2021, however at the time of writing (9 December 2021) the Bill had not passed Parliament or become law.

Removal of the $450 per month minimum Super Guarantee threshold

From an expected date of 1 July 2022, the Government has proposed removing the $450 per month minimum Super Guarantee income threshold. Under the current rules, an employer is not required to pay Super Guarantee contributions for an employee who earns less than $450 per month.

The Government introduced a Bill to implement this change on 27 October 2021, however at the time of writing (9 December 2021) the Bill had not passed Parliament or become law.

Choice to exit certain legacy income streams

The Government has proposed a two-year window during which you could choose to commute certain otherwise non-commutable legacy income streams (including term allocated pensions) first commenced prior to 20 September 2007<sup>5</sup>.

Under this proposal, you may then be able to use the commuted amount to commence a more flexible income stream such as an account based pension, make a lump sum withdrawal or retain it in a superannuation accumulation account.

The Government has proposed that the two-year window will commence from the first financial year after this proposal becomes law. At the time of writing, this change had not been legislated.

<sup>5</sup> It is unclear at the time of writing whether term allocated pensions commenced on or after 20 September 2007 (via the rollover of another non-commutable income stream) are eligible.
