Please refer to the PDS for full details of the applicable fees, costs, and benchmarks.

Investment objective

The option aims to outperform the FTSE Developed Core Infrastructure 50/50 Index hedged to Australian dollars over rolling five-year periods before fees and taxes.

Investment strategy

The option has a value-oriented philosophy towards investing in listed infrastructure and uses a relative value framework to determine both subsector and security weightings. Cohen & Steers believes success in global listed infrastructure investing requires a balance of top-down subsector research and bottom-up company specific analysis.
